How to support:

1. Find your US Congressional representative at:
<https://www.house.gov/representatives/find-your-representative>
  - a. Check the list of current co-sponsors:
<https://www.congress.gov/bill/118th-congress/house-bill/1369/cosponsors>
2. Each representative has their own contact instructions/information on their website. After searching their name, you should see a “mail” button that redirects you to their website (see right).
3. Oftentimes, letters to federal representatives are tallied into “for”s and “against”s by staffers who then compile a list of arguments from each side. Short and straightforward messages with clear points and arguments work best in this case. Some key points to mention include:
  - a. The Korean War still has not concluded after over 70 years
  - b. The existence of the war poses a global security threat. It provides the backdrop for escalating tension, hostility, and militarization of the region
    - i. Every Spring and Fall, US-ROK war drills take place, creating a cycle of provocation with North Korea
    - ii. Risk of nuclear war
    - iii. Environmental destruction caused by militarization
    - iv. Enormous waste of American taxpayer money that could be better spent elsewhere
  - c. The US has a responsibility to work towards peace given our historical involvement in the region
  - d. Seventy years later, elderly Koreans are running out of time to reunite with their loved ones
